Yiren Digital Announces Management Change

On December 31, 2020, Yiren Digital Inc. (“Yiren Digital” or the “Company”), a leading personal financial service platform in China, announced a management change. Mr. Michael Chunjiang Ji has resigned from his position as the Chief Risk Officer of the Company for personal reasons, effective December 31, 2020, and the board of directors of the Company has appointed Dr. George Liu, to replace Mr. Michael Chunjiang Ji as the Company’s Chief Risk Officer, effective December 31, 2020.

Dr. Liu has decades of experience in data and risk management, both in China and the United States. Before joining the Company, he took a series of executive roles and built rich experience in entrepreneurship, including serving as the Chief Data Executive and VP for Mashang Consumer Finance, a leading consumer finance company in China. Dr. Liu worked at Capital One for over a decade where he served as the Senior Director of Decision Science and led the efforts of risk control for the company’s credit card business before returning to China. Dr. Liu received his Ph.D. in statistical science from the Pennsylvania State University and received his two master’s degrees, one in mathematics and one in statistical science, from the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Science and Technology of China respectively.

Safe Harbor Statement

This announcement contains forward-looking statements. These statements constitute “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as “will,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “future,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “estimates,” “target,” “confident” and similar statements.
